

Conference Rules of Procedure

Preamble

This Conference is dedicated to nail stylists - both those who run beauty parlours, as well as those who perform nail styling services as employees of beauty parlours or ambassadors. By organising the Conference, the organiser wants to support the development of smaller entrepreneurs who provide nail styling services with INDIGO NAILS products, both those who run beauty parlours, as well as those who perform nail styling as employees of beauty parlours or ambulatory services. This will level the playing field on the market and enable them to obtain the products they need to perform nail styling.

Under no circumstances is the Conference intended for entrepreneurs conducting as part of its business activities, the sale of cosmetic products, including INDIGO NAILS brand products (distributors, sub-distributors, wholesalers).

The aim of the Conference is not for those professionally involved in the sale of cosmetic products, including INDIGO NAILS brand products, to participate in the Conference, purchase products at lower promotional prices or win prizes as a result, and then sell the products obtained at a cheaper price or as prizes at an even higher profit for their sales activities. Such actions are strongly objected to by the organiser, and consequences will be drawn against those who take part in the Conference even though they do not meet the conditions of participation.

V. Personal data

1. The administrator of the Participants' personal data is the Organiser from whom the Participant purchased products as part of the Conference.
2. Personal data collected in relation to the Conference shall be processed for the purpose of the performance of the sales agreement, for accounting purposes, as well as for the assertion of claims and defence against claims arising from the Sales Agreement - on the basis of a legitimate legal interest of the Administrator, which is the assertion of claims and defence against claims. Personal data is also collected for the purpose of the Competition and Prize dispatch - on the basis of the Organiser's legitimate legal interest in conducting the Competition.
3. Participants' personal data may be disclosed to entities supporting the Organiser in the execution of the Conference, including, in particular, marketing agencies, courier companies, a postal operator, a law firm, an accounting office.
4. In connection with the Organiser's processing of personal data, Participants have the following rights:
  - a) The right of access to the data and the right to request their rectification, erasure or restriction of their processing;
  - b) The right to transfer the personal data provided to another controller;
  - c) The right to object to the processing.
5. Participants also have the right to lodge a complaint with the competent supervisory authority.
6. The personal data of Conference Participants will be stored for the period during which it is possible to make a complaint, and in the case of a complaint, for the time necessary to process the complaint, until the statute of limitations for claims.

7. The provision of personal data is voluntary, however, it is a prerequisite for the performance of the sales contract. The consequence of not providing personal data will therefore be that the sales contract cannot be fulfilled.
8. Personal data will not be subject to profiling.
9. Personal data will not be transferred outside the EEA or to an international organisation.

VI. Final provisions

1. In the event of a possible dispute, the court with jurisdiction over the Organiser's registered office will have jurisdiction over the dispute.
2. If you have any questions or complaints, please contact the Conference Organiser by e-mail at: reklamacje@indigo-nails.com.
3. When making a complaint, the objections must be described in detail. Complaints will be considered by the Organiser immediately, but no later than within 14 working days of receipt of complete information necessary to consider the matter.
